NATIONAL SCIENCE FILM LIBRARY CATALOGUE

The new NSFL catalogue, "Films on Engineering" will be available for distribution in January of the new year. The listing will include more than 500 titles dealing with civil, electrical, mechanical and transport engineering. The majority of the films are intended for high school and university audiences.

WORLD COLLOQUIUM

The Illuminating Engineering Society is sponsoring a 'World Colloquium' through its Theatre Television & Film Lighting Sub Committee, to be held in New York City in May '71. For further information please contact Mr. Philip Rose, 6334 Viscount Road, Malton, Ontario, Canada.

NATIONAL FILM THEATRE - REPERTOIRE CANADIEN DU CINEMA

The NFT recently concluded its 'Godard Series', with a showing of SYMPATHY FOR THE DEVIL. On the same programme an early film by another 'rebel' was enthusiastically received, this was Luis Bunuel's L'AGE D'OR, made forty years ago and rarely seen since. Gideon Bachmann's hour long documentary on Federico Fellini was recently shown along with JULIET OF THE SPIRITS.

The next programme will be the classic Japanese film GATE OF HELL, noted for its stunning use of colour. The last showing before Christmas will be Halas and Batchelor's animated version of Orwell's ANIMAL FARM.

NOTES

La version française du film, L'OEIL DU SPECTATEUR, est maintenant disponible; frais d'utilization - $15.00, vente - $300.00.
